

“There is nothing more important than protecting our women and children, our life-givers and future generations. They are our hearts and souls. We must act to defend them. I fully support this MMIW campaign and I thank Governor Noem for also doing so. I believe that at long last with bipartisan support on Capitol Hill we will finally see meaningful legislation passed to address this terrible tragedy.”

Chairman Boyd Gourneau, Lower Brule Sioux Tribe.

